

BOOK LAUNCH

You are invited to the launch of:

The Commonwealth Block, Melbourne A Historical Archaeology

by Tim Murray, Kristal Buckley, Sarah Hayes,
Geoff Hewitt, Justin McCarthy, Richard Mackay,
Barbara Minchinton, Charlotte Smith,
Jeremy Smith and Bronwyn Woff

The book will be launched by Justin McCarthy and Richard Mackay.

Thursday, 23 May 2019 at 6 pm

The foyer, 50 Lonsdale Street
(the Urban Workshop)

Melbourne

FREE

Since the 1980s, archaeologists and historians have pieced together the rich and complex history of Melbourne's Little Lonsdale Street – locally known as 'Little Lon' – revealing a working-class and immigrant community that was much more than just a slum. This ground-breaking book reports on almost three decades of excavations conducted on the Commonwealth Block and delves into the complex social, cultural and economic history of this forgotten community.

Studies in Australasian Historical Archaeology 7

THE COMMONWEALTH BLOCK, MELBOURNE A Historical Archaeology

Tim Murray, Kristal Buckley, Sarah Hayes, Geoff Hewitt, Justin McCarthy, Richard Mackay, Barbara Minchinton,
Charlotte Smith, Jeremy Smith and Bronwyn Woff

March 2019

297 x 210 mm, 162 pp

ISBN: 9781743323694 (paperback)

$45

Sydney University Press
in association with the Australasian Society
for Historical Archaeology

SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Sydney University Press, Fisher Library F03
The University of Sydney NSW 2006, Australia
sydney.edu.au/sup • sup.info@sydney.edu.au
p: +612 9036 9958 • f: +612 9114 0620